

Training Seminar on the Updated Ventura County Technical Guidance Manual for Stormwater Quality

The seminar is a day-long educational event focusing on new stormwater management planning and engineering requirements for land development projects in Ventura County

Presented and Sponsored By:

*Ventura Countywide
Stormwater Quality
Management Program*

Tuesday June 21, 2011
8:00am to 4:00 pm
City of Thousand Oaks Library
Marvin E. Smith Community Room
1401 E. Janss Road
Thousand Oaks, CA 91362
 Lunch Included

Programming
and Event
Support Provided By:

SEMINAR TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Understanding the new Low Impact Development requirements
- Project applicability and options when requirements are technically infeasible
- Selecting the right BMP using feasibility criteria
- Overview of alternative compliance and off-site mitigation options
- Using Case Study examples to walk through the new permit process and select BMPs meeting permit objectives

Registration Form

Name: _____
Company: _____
Address: _____
City, State, Zip: _____
Email: _____ Phone: _____

Public Employees & BIA Members: $69
 BIA Non-Members: $85
 Credit Card Check enclosed Code _____
Card #: _____ ex _____
Name on the Card: _____

Send registration to: BIA/LAV 28480 Avenue Stanford, Suite 240 Santa Clarita, CA 91355
ltafoya@bialav.org Phone: 661-257-5046 ext 1 Fax: 661-705-4489